To Register: to go <http://www.EmergencyServicesEducators.com/course-registration/>

You will learn about:

The unique personal protection challenges that responder's face during a weapon of mass destruction (WMD)/terrorist incident or a hazardous materials incident. Major course topics include assessing WMD hazards, predicting the likely behavior of WMD materials, effectively operating and communicating in a unified command structure of the Incident Command System, personal protective equipment needs, performing emergency decontamination, and identifying defensive strategies for a WMD incident. PER-212 is based on NFPA 472 (2008) consensus standard operations-level core competencies and PPE mission specific competency, OSHA (29CFR 1910.120) and EPA (40CFR Part 311) response regulations. It is recommended all course participants go online at <http://teexwmdcampus.com> and take the course prerequisite, AWR 160, WMD/Terrorism Awareness for Emergency Responders. Participants should print the certificate and have a copy available the first day of class for our files.

At the conclusion of this course you will be able to:

- Predict the likely behavior of hazardous materials used in a WMD incident and use resources to estimate the potential harm posed by the materials involved
- Use previously gathered information, survey the incident scene and surrounding area, identify unique hazards present at a WMD or hazardous materials incident
- Help determine the size and scope of an incident in order to communicate this information to the Incident Commander
- Survey a WMD or HazMat incident to identify the containers and the container markings to determine the hazardous materials involved
- Determine appropriate Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) for a given hazardous material, as well as don, doff, and work in PPE
- Perform emergency decontamination

Educational Credits (CEU): 2.4 CEUs (IACET)
